Life Science Recht

Stämpfli Verlag

LSR 1/2020 | S. 45–51 45

Tagungsberichte

The Concept of Plausibility in Patent Law

VESPA Evening Seminar on October 31, 2019 in Zurich

Alfred Köpf Dr. sc. nat. ETH, European and Swiss Patent Attorney, Rentsch Partner AG

Christian Ebner Dr. sc. ETH, Patent Engineer, Rentsch Partner AG

Table of Contents

I. The Origin of Plausibility – How the Stone got Rolling – Lara Dorigo

A. First Appearance of Plausibility at the EPO

B. Plausibility in UK Case Law

II. Plausibility in Medical Applications From the EPO's Perspective – Elsie Cielen

A. Current Practice at the EPO

B. Practical Cases

III. Plausibility Requirement vs. Clinical Trial Transparency – Prisca von Ballmoos

IV. Plausibility in Litigation – Lara Dorigo

Traditionally, the VESPA (Verband der freiberuflichen und Schweizer Patentanwälte, Association des conseils en brevets suisses et européens de profession libérale)[1] invites its members in fall for an evening seminar dealing with a topic of general importance for patent practitioners. After an introduction into history and evolution of plausibility, three brilliant speakers looked at the topic from three...

Dieses Dokument ist für Abonnenten oder Pay-per-Document-Kunden zugänglich.

Abonnieren ↦ Kaufen ↦

Login

Das Dokument "The Concept of Plausibility in Patent Law" wurde von Gast am 28.03.2024 auf der Website lsr.recht.ch erstellt. | © Staempfli Verlag AG, Bern - 2024